

Alcohol and smoking policy

The main principle for both employees and guests is that alcohol and work do not belong together. However, for anniversaries and special occasions, it is allowed to drink a beer or a glass of wine.

The Danish Technological Institute is a completely smoke-free workplace, which means that smoking during working hours, either at the Danish Technological Institute's cadastres or outside. This also applies to the use of E-cigarettes.

The policy applies to all employees and others who are affiliated with the The Danish Technological Institute. Students, guests and tenants will be referred to designated marked smoking areas.

If the smoking ban is not respected, the offense may have employment consequences, including warning, termination or expulsion.